Earth Day “Recycled Runway” Competition 2017

Saturday,
April 22, 2017

Competition Overview

The competition seeks to promote the use of recycled, reusable and renewable materials in creative and artistic ways, while raising environmental and waste awareness among the entrants.

Theme

This year's theme is Endangered Animals.

Showcase in your costume an endangered animal whose cause you care about.

Costume Specifications

All costumes must be made from only recyclable, reusable and renewable materials. This can include but is not limited to: cardboard, aluminum, plastics, paper, steel/tin, Styrofoam, paper bags, glass, and recycled fabric.

The use of glue, tape, and paint may be used in small amounts only to enhance the costume.

Footwear, jewelry and other accessories must also be primarily made from recyclable, reusable and renewable materials.

Please remember this is a family-friendly event, so costumes should be appropriate.

Entry Showcase and Final Judging

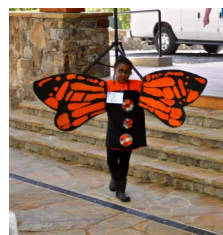

All participants who turn in a completed entry form must wear their completed costume on the runway at the Earth Day Festival on Saturday, April 22nd, 2017 located at the Anne Springs Close Greenway (250 Dairy Barn Lane, Fort Mill, SC 29715) for final judging.

Judging time TBD and emailed to all entrants.*

Judging Categories

Costumes will be judged based on the following criteria:

- Creativity
- Use of Materials
- Overall Look
- Runway Interview

Interview Questions

Be prepared to answer the following questions within one minute during the runway show:

- ◆ What materials did you use to make your costume?
- ◆ Why did you choose your animal?
- ◆ Why is your animal endangered?
- ◆ How can people help protect your animal?
