

GREENWAY SPEAKER SERIES

BEES: What's the Buzz?

Saturday, November 23, 2019

Speaker: Chris Dobbins, Certified Beekeeper

The Anne Springs Close Greenway welcomes Chris Dobbins to explain the Five Steps to Becoming a Beekeeper. Chris will share how to become certified, scout your spot, purchase supplies, get your bees, and how to patiently wait for your hive to come alive. The morning will be(e) both informative and fun as Chris also shares stories of his own personal hives.

About the Speaker: Christopher Dobbins is a Fort Mill native who grew up exploring the Anne Springs Close Greenway. He now enjoys backyard beekeeping with his wife, sharing their honey with others and educating others on the importance of bees and other pollinators! Chris is a certified Master Beekeeper in the state of South Carolina and is an active member of the South Carolina Honeybee Society and York County Beekeeper Association.

THE DETAILS

Location

Adventure Center
104 Adventure Road
Fort Mill, SC

Cost

This event is free to Greenway members and $5 for non-members.

Time

Meet and Greet will begin at 10a and the presentation will begin at 10:30a. Light snacks and coffee will be served.

FYI

In an effort to be more environmentally responsible, we encourage attendees to bring their own reusable water bottles or coffee mugs to minimize waste from single-use cups!

*For more information, please visit our website at ascgreenway.org or contact
Darlene Kerr at darlenekerr@ascgreenway.org.*