Charlie

Birthday: 2012

Breed: Miniature horse gelding

Coloring: Bay

Favorite Thing: Convincing everyone he is in charge

Best Friend: Carlos

Fun Fact: Charlie went to the doctor with a sore throat one day, but the doctor said not to worry, he was just a "little horse."

Charlie and Carlos are two of the original animals in the Greenway's petting zoo. They live in the barnyard with the pigs and goats. Like their full-sized horse friends, miniature horses have sensitive stomachs, so please do not feed them.
